NINE TURKEY-DAY DISTANCE RUNS

All Districts to See Hill-and-Dalers in Action on Thursday

SCHOOLBOYS IN ACTION

Thanksgiving Day will present nine cross-country runs for the edification of local admirers of fleet-footed Mer-the American Interscholastic, which has been a fixture for Thanksgiving Day morning these many years. All of the local high schools will enter teams, as well as institutions in many other cities. Mercersburg Academy is the favorite to win the race, for the team, under the intelage of Jimmy Curran, has shown

In none of their competitions they even been closely pressed. Their opening victory was over Penn fresh. followed it up by easily ning the Vale interscholastic. their biggest victory was the Columbia interscholastic, when, with 400 entries, the Mercersburg lads captured the first three places.

The star of the squad is Bill Cox.

former Rochester Trade School miler. who has only been beaten once in his career. Cox is being groomed to grab off first place in the Thanksgiving Day

Another big affair is the annual race of the Schuylkill Navy, in which forty-six entries have already been received. Fone interteen prizes will be awarded, and Bachelors Barge, Fairmount, Malta, Pennsylvania Barge, Undine, University, Vesper and West Philadelphia will have representatives to compete for them. The record for the course is 30:24 3-5, made by K. Schested, of Malta, in 1916. This race is the longest of the day, the minners having to cover five and five-sixteenth miles of terrain before calling it a day.

More than 100 entries are listed in the cun of the John Wanamaker Comtwo distances, one for inniors and intermediates and the other for seniors The Germantown Boys' Chib Thanks.

The Germantown Boys Club Thanksgiving Day run is the big feature of that section of the city. The winners will receive insigning of the club and other prizes. Like the J. W. C. I.
dash, it will be divided into classes according to the ages of the contestful eye of Charles II. Bainbridge.
Four Catholic clubs have also arranged for their hill-and-dalers to get notion. Shanahan's boys will chase for mfles of South Phi'ly pavements; Asconsion's field is in Kensington, and thirty-nine of their runners will rip it ders will have a three-mile jaunt in

The Meadowhrook Club, not to be condone, will start its race at the same snot that the J. W. C. L. does, but it will be two bours later in starting and course will be more than twice a-
